YEAR'S LIGHTEST DAY BONDS IN DEMAND ON NEW YORK 'CHANGE ON LOCAL EXCHANGE

Quarter Million Shares Sold-Prices Hot Weather Apathy Relieved by Firm to Higher.

New York, Aug. 1.—One quarter of a million shares changed hands on the stock exchange today, the lightest trading day this year. Prices gen-erally were firm to higher, the largest advances being attributed to pool ac-tivity.

tivity.

Off the exchange the feature was a jump of $7.50 a bale in the October cotton option on the unexpectedly low government condition report.

Several earnings statements made while were interesting. Midvale Steel Several earnings statements made public were interesting. Midvale Steel and Ordnance net for the second quarter were $100,000 ahead of the previous quarter despite deductions of $419,000 for government excess profits and income taxes compared with $1,536,000 deducted for similar purposes in the first quarter. Net after interest charges for the half year is at the annual rate of $24.50 on Midvale shares.

Although only twenty shares of stock changed hands during yesterday's session of the Washington Stock Exchange, demand for bonds was fairly strong and served to relieve, to some extent, the apathy which has settled upon trading during the hot weather. Ten shares of American National sold at 156 and ten shares of American Security and Trust sold at 256. Washington Railway and Electric 4s were in good demand, $1,000 selling at 77%. Inquiries for American Graphaphone 6s slightly boosted the price, the first $100 selling at 100, the next transaction, $200, brought 100%, and another $100 sold for 100%. Another $100 sold at 100%.

Definite plans for the establishment of an employment bureau will be made at a meeting which will probably be held the latter part of the week by the employment council of the District Bankers' Association, of which John Poole, president of the Federal National Bank, is chairman. The employment situation among local banking institutions has grown so acute that concerted action will be taken at once to remedy existing conditions, it was said yesterday. In several banks women are not only being employed to replace men, but young men, under draft age, are also being employed. being employed.

The tremendous business being done The tremendous business being done by the United States Steel corporation is disclosed by the statement of earnings. Despite the huge tax imposed on total earnings by the government, its total earnings for the second quarter of this year were $90,579,204, About 37 per cent or $53,-918,572 has been laid aside to pay government war taxes. government war taxes.

The usual dividends of 1% per cent on the preferred stock and 1% per cent on the common was declared, with an extra 3 per cent on the common, as in the previous quarter.

cars assisting in the work, but escaped.

Whaling was placed aboard a "light" engine and rushed to this city, but died before the engine arrived at the union station.

A coroner's jury summoned by Dr. T. M. Jones, which met tonight at Wheatley's undertaking chapel, gave a verdict to the effect that Whaling was crushed between two cars while performing his duty as brakeman, and added, "and in the opinion of the jury his death was due to negligence on the part of the railroad by which he was employed." He was a native of Brooke station, Fairfax county.
